

A close-up, profile view of a woman's face and neck. She has dark hair pulled back, blue eyeshadow, and a small stud earring. Her skin is illuminated with a vibrant, multi-colored glow, primarily in shades of blue, purple, and pink. A thin necklace with a small pendant hangs around her neck. The background is a soft, warm gradient transitioning from orange to peach.

04.

How does it work?

INFAMOUS is an exclusive community where the members are part of a decentralized organization created to help influencers, models and bloggers to kick start their career and help brands to collaborate safely with them.

- All community members can apply to enter the talent scouting.
- The DAO members can participate to the voting polls.
- Winners automatically get granted our Infamous package, free of charge.
- Collaborations with brands are offered to the winners.

How to become a member?

You only need to own 1 $IFMS token to be a member of the community.

How to be part of the DAO?

You acquire voting rights in the organization when you own one NFT of the Infamous NFT collection.

Nfamous NFT Collection

Crafted by the Australian artist Hipworth, the Nfamous NFT Collection is based on popular models and influencers from the fashion and blogging industries immortalizing them on the blockchain with 10,000 unique generative art collages. Limited to 10,000 unique art pieces, owning one of the Nfamous NFT is the only way to be part of our DAO community and to vote to decide which new talents we will push.
